2020 FACT SHEET

PURPOSE
Historic Hotels of America® is the official program of the National Trust for Historic Preservation for recognizing, celebrating, and promoting the finest historic hotels. Each fascinating place has been inducted into this distinguished program based upon noteworthy standards, including quality of accommodations, historic significance, record of preserving authenticity, sense of place and architectural integrity.

FOUNDING DATE
Historic Hotels of America was founded in 1989 by the National Trust for Historic Preservation with 35 charter members.

MEMBERSHIP CRITERIA
To be nominated and selected for membership in this prestigious program, a hotel must be at least 50 years old; designated by the U.S. Secretary of the Interior as a National Historic Landmark or listed in or eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places; and recognized as having historical significance. The Historic Sites Act of 1935 authorized the U.S. Secretary of the Interior to formally record and organize historic properties and to designate them as having national historical significance and gave the National Park Service authority to administer the program.

The National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 established the National Register of Historic Places for recognizing districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects worthy of preservation. Both programs were combined with oversight by the National Park Service. Travelers can discover over 23 historic hotels designated by the U.S. Secretary of the Interior as National Historic Landmarks and experience more than 126 historic hotels listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

HERITAGE
Members of Historic Hotels of America represent the heritage and development of America. One of the earliest hotels, Hotel El Convento in Old San Juan, Puerto Rico is a former Carmelite Convent dating to 1651. Another, Concord’s Colonial Inn dates to 1716. During the Revolutionary War, one of the inn’s original buildings stored arms and provisions for the Concord Minutemen.
One other example is the Omni Homestead Resort in Hot Springs, Virginia. Known as America’s First Resort, The Homestead has been welcoming guests since 1766.

“The work of Historic Hotels of America is indispensable in maintaining architectural masterpieces, which not only continue to serve the traveling public, but are also enduring monuments to our national heritage.”

-Dr. A.K. Sandoval-Strausz, Ph.D., History Professor, University of New Mexico, Distinguished Lecturer, Organization of American Historians

“If a hotel was not built recently, then consumers will categorize the hotel as either historic or old. Obviously, it is better to be historic.”

“Academic research conducted across several different industries suggests that brand heritage supports premium pricing. … historic hotels can achieve a significant advantage in ADR and REVPAR versus contemporary hotels … The key variable seems to be the degree to which the older hotel emphasizes and celebrates its history.”

-Bradford Hudson, Ph.D., Marketing Professor, Boston College, Excerpts from his keynote address to owners, general managers, and other senior leadership attending the 2018 Annual Conference of Historic Hotels of America.

TOTAL MEMBERSHIP

More than 300 hotels that have faithfully maintained their authenticity, sense of place and architectural integrity participate in the Historic Hotels of America program. Historic Hotels of America is comprised of mostly independently owned and operated properties. More than 30 hotel chains, brands, and collections are represented in Historic Hotels of America. More than 100 historic hotels are listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

LOCATIONS

Member hotels are located in 44 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

ROOMS

Hotels range in size from the five suite Greyfield Inn to the city-center Palmer House Hilton in Chicago with 1,639 rooms.

SETTINGS

Hotels are situated in settings that range from rustic to refined, in locales as diverse as the mountain wilderness, manicured country sides, the center of small towns and bustling metropolises. From opulent mansions to converted factories, each fascinating place has been inducted into this distinguished program based upon noteworthy standards, including quality of accommodations, historic significance, listed in or eligible to be listed in the National Register of Historic Places, and building age.

RESERVATIONS
Rooms at any of the member hotels can be reserved by visiting HistoricHotels.org, calling +1 800 678 8946, or a travel planner (GDS code HE). A portion of every booking fee received from Historic Hotels of America for bookings made through HistoricHotels.org supports the National Trust for Historic Preservation in its mission to enhance local community historic preservation programs across America.

OWNERSHIP
